

Event Overview – Experts from various disciplines will discuss topics related to cross disciplinary approaches to systemic inequities, the effects of housing law and policy on diverse populations, legal interventions to overcome barriers to health justice, and creative approaches to these issues in North Carolina. This symposium aims to shed light on the issue and encourage conversation into how we can better address health inequities through housing law.

Event Schedule –

Worrell Professional Center Wake Forest University School of Law, Winston-Salem, NC February 21, 2025
8:30 am - 9:00 am	Check-in / Coffee & Breakfast
9:00 am - 9:15 am	Welcome from the Dean and Acknowledgements
9:15 am - 10:00 am	Keynote Address Dan Rose, Housing Justice Now
10:00 am - 11:00 am	Panel 1: Cross Disciplinary Approaches to Address Healthy Housing Allyson Gold, Wake Forest University School of Law Dr. Kimberly Montez, Wake Forest University School of Medicine Dr. Jessica Valente, Wake Forest University School of Medicine
11:10 am - 12:30 pm	Panel 2: Intersection Between Race and Access to Healthy Housing Jesse McCoy, Duke University School of Law Ashley Hernandez, Department of City and Regional Planning at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill Dr. Sherri Lawson Clark, Department of Anthropology at Wake Forest University Jade Craig, The University of Mississippi School of Law Brenda Gibson, Wake Forest University School of Law
12:30 pm - 1:30 pm	Lunch Break
1:30 pm - 2:40 pm	Panel 3: Local Responses to Housing Issues Mayor Allen Joines, Mayor of Winston-Salem Keven Cheshire, Housing Authority of Winston-Salem Stephanie Watkins-Cruz, North Carolina Housing Coalition Donald Vaughan, Wake Forest University School of Law
2:45 pm - 4:00 pm	Panel 4: Legal Interventions to Promote Healthy Housing Ashley Campbell, CEO North Carolina Legal Aid Brandon Weiss, American University Washington College of Law Isaac Sturgill, City of Charlotte Steve Virgil, Wake Forest University School of Law

CLE Credit – Attendees will be eligible to receive 5.5 CLE credit hours for full-day attendance of the event. Those who wish to be considered for CLE credit must provide their NC Bar number on the registration form.